“ I just found out about Norma Jean's passing. I worked with her at Michigan Bell Telephone Company and she was a joy to be around. My prayers are with the Family. Oh what a joy it will be when we see her again on the Other Side.

“ I'm Sorry we never met. Although we did vicariously. Oddly enough those you assisted in their careers may have not assisted you in your time of need. But with that said you left recorded performances second to none. Your Notes and Nuance left us Breathless. It is Truly Ashame the World didn't get to experience your Black 'B*tch' Magic as we should have. And those responsible for such should bear the shame. Your still the Baddest in the Room, Leaving us in Pandamonium,)

You Blessed Us.

“ *Well Norma Jean, here we are. I already miss you. The Word of God says: A friend Loves at all times, and a friend sticks closer than a brother (i say Sister), this describes our relationship perfectly. I will miss your bossy spirit, the descriptive phrases we used Lol, the laughter, our constant Prayers, especially for our grandchildren, I could go on and on. So, until we me again; I Love You!
