“ Olivia's signature color was pink. She loved all holidays, especially Christmas. Her children Chenida and Veda were her priority. Dajia, her one and only grand daughter was her world. Mothers Day she was showered with flowers and gifts from her family. She had a way with French, kept me laughing. Rest in Power . Much Love Deb & Chuck.

“ Veda & Chenida,

My prayers are going out for you and your family. This is a very difficult time but always look towards the Lord for your strength and guidance.

“ Separated by only six months of our births, I shared many summers with my cousin, Lib, either in Detroit or Knoxville, TN. We shared many adventures since we were the youngest of all of the cousins who spent summers and holidays together. Through all of health issues Olivia experienced, we knew how much family meant to her. In our latter years, her heart was with us when she couldn't physically join us.

She friendly criticized my southern accent and I poked fun at her northern pronunciation of certain words. I used the word “pop” while she called the soft drink, “soda”. We compared notes about our children and would often laugh as they became young adults.

Lib was fashionable and loved to dress to impress. We always discuss the loss of our mothers who made up part of the Big Four (Tab, Bessie Lee, Annie Lee, and Corene). She has now transitioned to her new home where she is now among those who welcomed her.

Soar high my dear cousin and know that your memory will always have a place of honor in my life.
