“ Family,

Words cannot express the sympathy felt for the loss of our family patriarch, Aunt Penny. We do pray that God will provide the strength needed for the family to get through this difficult time and the days ahead. Do hold onto the many memories shared with Aunt Penny for certainly, smiles are certain to come, which allows God to perform a mighty work in comforting. There is no doubt that we will always hear Aunt Penny's angelic voice singing along at our family reunions for indeed she was a beautiful soloist. Cousins, family, and friends; may you find strength through these penned words and may God be with each of you!

“ To The Johnson Family,

So sorry for the pain that you and your family bear, and the loss that everyone is feeling right now. But please understand that deep in our hearts, friends want to help somehow. And want you and the family to know that we're hoping brighter days will be coming your way. And that time and the prayers of so many who care will lessen your sorrow each day.

“ I cannot express how saddened I am by the passing of my dear cousin Penny. While my heart weighs heavy, I am grateful to God for the time we shared since childhood. Our talks, our laughs, our family bond, and most importantly, our love, will last forever. I know that she has gone on to see the King, but she will forever remain in our hearts.

“ Mrs. Johnson was like a mother to all the children at New Whitestone Missionary Baptist Church. She stood stoic with a lovely soul and a firm belief in God, I will always remember her smile, her leadership, and how she made sure everyone had what they needed before she served herself. She raised her children in the church and we all became brothers and sisters in Christ. She will forever be missed and will always be loved.

“ I have so many memories of my mother. She was a strong woman with a huge heart. She loved singing and her favorite song was 'Oh Lord Have Mercy'. I remember her singing that song from childhood on up. While her memory was challenged as her illness progressed, she never forgot the words to that song.

Life has separated us, but I know it is only your soul departing from your body. Your spirit will be with me always!

R.I.P. Mom, I Love You
