“ Condolences go out to our sister Pat’s family. Pat has been a part of my organization W.E.A.N. (Women Embracing Abilities Now) for over 25 years. I met Pat when we would ride the Mobility bus to work every morning. Pat would be dropped off at the Department of Aging and I would be dropped off at the IRS. We became good friends/sisters. Pat had a gentle spirit and love the Lord. I kept in touch with Pat until she was not able to respond. May Pat RIP And knowing that she’s not suffering anymore has given me some peace. Her W.E.A.N. Family will miss her so much. God bless, Janice. ❤️🙏

“ Pat was a true friend and I am so thankful to God for her being in my life and the life of my family. Having faced so much adversity, but never complaining caused me to always examine my attitude and appreciation for life. I'll miss you so much. Your BFF, Angela.

Patricia And I met through our jobs at the State Department of Aging, more than twenty-four years ago. .She had already accomplished so much by year 2000. There were programs and services for the elderly operating and doing very well because of her advocacy. Patricia had many gifts and talents, she could discern those who were insincere. She encouraged others to not give up and to put forth their best effort too. I immediately recognized in her a very special strength, to endure, long suffering, never complaining, and she had the ability to collect a crew of friends who loved her and helped her in their own special way. She had a sense of humor and in her very quiet way she possessed the will and determination to live a full and complete life. She was our "activities coordinator". Because of her, we went on shopping trips in Virginia, attended operas, soulful jazz events, and ate tons of popcorn at the movies. She was generous in her giving, never expecting anything that was not meant for her for free. She did what was needed to get the job done because what she did mattered to seniors who needed someone to speak up for them. She taught me, just by how she lived her life, to be humble. She was a woman of integrity with reverence for God, and she was my true -true friend. I will miss her forever. My heart is still breaking. My love for her as a sister -girl is never ending. God bless you. May God be with you family as you celebrate her life and as you come together to mourn your loss. Be strong, be sincere, be loving and kind, just like Patricia.

I met Pat in the early 1980s when she began working at the Maryland Office on Aging. She was upbeat, friendly and well-liked by everyone. Pat enjoyed her sweets during our office parties and she would jokingly advise me to make my way to the dessert table early before they disappeared. When I transferred to another agency, Pat and I continued to meet for lunch until she retired from the State. We kept in touch by phone over the years, even after I moved to another state, and I made it a point to send her a t-shirt, magnet or postcard from places to which I traveled because she told me how much she treasured them. Pat encountered many obstacles throughout her life, but she handled all of them with grace. I will miss my dear friend, but I know she is now at peace.

When I think of my friend of over 50 years, Pat, this verse from 2 Timothy 4:7 comes to mind" I have finished my course, I have kept the faith.... That describes her to a T. I met Pat at MSU in 1970. Oh what fun we had after studying of course, the parties at Shaw Hall! I was welcomed into her large loving family. Her mon and my mom became friends. I called Mrs. Bayliss, Mother Bayliss. Pat was my confidant giving me real good advice over the years. Pat and I traveled together , like to eat out though she was a very picky eater lol, went to plays and movies. Both our pastimes were watching tennis matches. We even back in the day played tennis on Outer Drive at Farwell School. Pat loved life and didn't let herself being in a wheelchair stop her. We had good times on my visits to Baltimore and I met her wonderful caring friends there. As my travel ability lessened we still talked on the phone weekly. I say to her niece and friends who updated me often as Pat' s health declined, "Thank you." I'll miss you, Pat, but feel so blessed to have been your friend. I love you, Linda
