“ I met Patricia Lowe in the year 1952.

She was in my Kindergarten class at Davison Elementary School in Detroit.

Her Older Sister Gwendolyn was Born on August 3, 1946 and preceded her in death, and Linda her younger sister born in January of 1949 passed away during a decade or more before Patricia departed.

I used to visit their home when they lived at 908 Webb Avenue in Detroit Michigan.

I kept in touch with Patricia when we became reacquainted in 1986 after her niece., Lillie Albert [Her sister Linda's daughter, and also my daughter visited her together after Lillie was Discharged from the Air Force.

I was out of touch with Pat for awhile, and I knew that she wasn't well.

I talked to her sometime in the year 2019.

Some months after her I called her phone # and found out that she had passed away.

I was shocked and saddened!!

I regret not keeping in touch with her even though she became irritated and reclude as she started to become less sociable due to her illness.

My Condolences are with her family forever, and just knowing GWEN PAT, AND LINDA WAS ALWAYS A STANDARD IN MY LIFE!!

THERE WAS MY LATE BROTHER RAYMOND ,
WHO WAS CLOSE TO GWEN...

THERE WAS PATRICIA AND HER FRIEND EUGENE [in her earlier days],

Then THERE WAS LINDA AND MYSELF ...BRIEFLY.
ON NEW YEARS 1966..

1. Gwen and James ,

[Raymond, my Brother had passed away 3 years earlier]

2. Patricia and Eugene...

3. *Myself and Linda ..,
Were celebrating the new year [The year that I was Drafted into the US ARMY!]*

THAT MEMORY IS CEMENTED ONTO MY DNA FOREVER!

*P.S.
My daughter Lillie was conceived during this meeting between Linda
Lowe , and myself!*

*Patricia Lowe , Rest In Peace.
You were a TRUE FRIEND 🙏*
