Patricia Elizabeth Lee Pierson

Educator, entrepreneur, and mentor Patricia Elizabeth Lee Pierson, was a beloved mother, aunt, sister, cousin, sorority sister, and life-long Christian. If you were a friend of Pat's, you were her friend for life. Patricia was born on May 7, 1947, to Samuel and Mary Elizabeth Cushman Lee in Memphis, Tennessee. She unexpectedly departed this life on Wednesday, December 15, 2021.

Patricia was a devoted Christian and had a deep faith and trust in God. Patricia moved to Detroit from Memphis and received her Bachelor's of Science degree from Wayne State University in 1969, where she also joined Wyoming Avenue Church of Christ, and faithfully served there for 52 years. Pat also obtained a Master's degree in Health Science and Physical Education from the University of Michigan in Ann Arbor in 1971.

Ms. Pierson taught Physical Education in both public and private schools, which included Murray Wright, Taft, Benedictine, and Knudsen Junior High. After 30 years of educational service, Ms. Pierson retired, and was still very active in the Global Empowerment Ministries Program and in mentoring.

Despite being retired from the classroom, Pat was a lifelong educator, and later became an entrepreneur.

Pat married the love of her life, Raymond 'Shark' Pierson on August 9, 1969 in Detroit. To their union a son was born, Raymond Charles Pierson Jr., on Sept. 7, 1973. Her kind heart and sweet soul touched many during her lifetime.

“ Patricia Elizabeth Lee Pierson was my dear Sister in Christ at the Wyoming Avenue Church of Christ in Detroit. She always had a beautiful smile when I saw her. Whenever she knew I was sick or not feeling well, she would send me a card with encouraging words. Pat as I called her sometimes had a beautiful heart, and kind words to share. I will truly miss you my sister! Rest in the arms of our Lord Jesus Christ, until we meet again. Love you! Virgia Lynn Peoples
