“ Patrick was a real one. He always had the happiest largest smile. It's hard to believe he transitioned but I'm grateful we have the same bloodline and the help he provided over the years to many. Rest peacefully Patrick
Love you

“ To my favorite uncle!! “Uncle Pat” as a child I would shout to you with excitement “Uncle Pat”! I knew you were going to give me a noogie as I walk through the shop doors. You would pick me up put me on your shoulders and walk around the building with me. I learn so much from you, I would sneak to use your tools and work desk(oh course you knew). I began breaking down electronics and rebuild them. Til this day I troubleshoot every equipment that I get my hands on. I’ve always told you thank you for everything you’ve done for me that I knew of. Main thing I am thankful for you being a “father figure” during my childhood after Grandpa passed. I’m grateful and thankful for you being there during the most important time of my life, taking me to the Father Daughter dance during elementary at McFarland. My guy My uncle My Favorite Uncle!!

“ My Condolences to Lauren, Paula & family, Polly & Family, Charlotte & Family. May God keep you all surrounded in Peace and Overwhelming Love and Support during this difficult time.

I remember coming to Church with my mom and sometimes my grandma, though I was very young, Patrick presence was always light & easy going with a bright energized smile.

He was always helping people in anyway he could. His Strength was silent but definitely present and he will truly be missed by all that have had the honor of knowing him.

“ When I moved into my home over 20 years ago, I was lucky enough to have the Bakers, Patrick, Sherita, and Lauren as my next door neighbors. My husband died 2 years ago and Patrick always made sure I was okay. Patrick, grilling on the deck, should have been a Utube video! I knew it had to be good by his flair for operating two grills at the same time, and the wonderful aromas that filled the air. Patrick put up with my love of wildlife and feeding of squirrels, birds, deer, and whatever else entered our yards. Patrick was a wonderful man that was taken much too soon. I am and will continue to miss Patrick and that big inviting smile that always made you feel special. Rest in peace Patrick.

“ Extending heart condolences to the family, friends and loved ones of Patrick Baker. I’ve had the privilege of being a colleague of Patrick’s for almost 20 years. He was the brains of slot operations at MGM Grand Detroit. An exceptional operator who had the best interests of his team at hand. He did it all, you could rely on him to deliver results in the toughest of situations and ‘make it look easy’. Ask anyone about him, they’ll tell you; I know what they’re going to say! ‘He was the Man!’ He’s been described as being ‘The Man’, more than anyone I’ve ever worked with. That is a testament to the value he brought to the table no matter the situation. An all-around great guy who will be missed beyond measure. May God’s comfort and peace reign in the hearts and minds of Patrick’s family, friends and loved ones.

Sincerely,

Troy Hammie
