“ Thank you for being a loving and praying mother. Thank you for teaching me to love and trust in Jesus. Thank you for being a loving grandmother to my son. So many people have shared with me how kind you were and how you prayed for them. I am full of gratitude to God for blessing me with you for 47 years. I know you are at rest now. I am comforted that you are now with Jesus and your parents who you loved so much. Until we meet again. I will love you forever. Your eldest daughter Alicia. ❤️

“ *Goodbye doesn't mean forever - I'll carry your memories and the sister bond we shared with me always. Though we may walk separate paths, your presence will stay in my heart, and I'll miss you dearly. Saying goodbye hurts, but I'm grateful for every moment we shared as sisters. Love you, Sis.
