“ Heaven opened its gates for Pinkie Kinsey. May her soul rest in peace. To the family, I wish I knew the things to say to help ease your sorrow, but it always seems that my words fall short at difficult times like these. I hope somehow you know my caring, prayers, and thoughts are with you. Please know I feel your sorrows and pain. With my deepest sympathy, cousin Robbie Anderson.

“ Mrs. Pinkey was a beautiful soul and extended that beauty to all those around her. She was not only my friends mother, but she was like tmom to all of us. I have always been in awe of her physical beauty but she was beautiful through and through. It was a blessing to have known her. Her kindness will always be remembered most. I will miss her very much, but God has plans for her in that promised land and she can now rest in eternal peace. Mrs Pinky, you were the best! Condolences are extended to the entire Kinsey clan. God Bless you all!

“ A Mother's love throughout our lives can be shown in many different ways. With discipline, guidance, a gentle touch (or a hard one, if necessary (smile), great Sunday dinners, words of encouragement, or a fun family trip. When it's gone we are sometimes left with numbness in our hearts, sadness or pain in our souls When a life is well-lived and loved is gone, memories of her will come shining through in many ways. I believe you will have wonderful, loving, even very funny memories. Thoughts of her will be found in the comfort of a cool breeze on a quiet day, daylight breaking in the morning, a butterfly fluttering round about, a bird singing outside your window, in the eyes of a child or in the laughter of those you love who are still here, We are truly blessed when we have known a Mother's (sister, aunt, cousin, or friend's) love. Our love, thoughts, and prayers go out to the Kinsey family from the Giddens family. Vivian, Marcia, Cheryl, Valerie, LaMonique, and Lauren

I grew up living 2 doors down from Mr. and Mrs. Kinsey and their children. She was a beautiful person inside and out and was a great Mother to all her children. Mr. and Mrs. Kinsey together were the ultimate power couple. It was amazing to see all of her beautiful children at the different stages of their life. It takes a special women to be a mother of this quality. She was very elegant and soft spoken and always had a kind word when you would see her. The world is a better place for her being here. Please know that the family of Pauline and Milton Kendrick are praying for you: Madeline, Mildred, Paula and Marie. We were a part of the Lumpkin Street family.

May God bless and keep you during this time.

“ I have good memories of Mrs. Kinsey, especially when I would go to the family house with Vanessa. Mrs. Kinsey would always greet you with her beautiful smile and ask if you wanted something to eat. She was so kind and always gave great advice. I am glad to have known her. I know that she will be resting in heaven. Love Deborah Hodge
