“ I have so many fond memories of playing golf with Ralph. From our trips up north to tournaments with the Chicago guys in Kalamazoo. Ralph was always fun to play with and even though I was able to drive the ball further than him on occasion, he would manage to get the ball in the hole before me with less strokes. I always knew I had a good day when I would get the better of him. I often joked with him that I would have to count the strokes at the end with him being my wife's math instructor. He was always the gentleman on and off the course. I will certainly miss him.

Rest well, Ralph. One of the nicest people I've met in Detroit. He and my husband are playing golf in heaven. I am just learning of Ralph's passing.
