“ Grandma means a lot to us all and I just would like to share a memory. Me, dad, and Kyndall went to Georgia to see Auntie Ebony and I saw Grandma and dropped all of my bags and jumped into her arms! We hugged for so long that when I tried to walk away she pulled me back in for more love! It was really fun! xoxo

Sending Love and Blessings to the family of a one of a kind super smart, super classy, kind-hearted, amazing lady... I had the blessed privilege of working as Reada's Assistant when she was Zone VIII Director for DHS. What a wonderful time I had working for Ms. Reada Johnson! She is such a gem! She is resting now in her "prepared place". Please know that her life blessed many! Kaye Smith-Clay
