“ Growing up on Maplewood some days Mrs Adams would be walking down the street to her home. She always treated us with kind words and pleasant hello's. My fondest memory would be that of calling Jeffrey home when the street lights came on. All the kids playing would wait on that moment. And with her sweet voice, but yet strong enough to be heard, Jeffrey she called and we repeated her with much laughter.

May all that knew and loved her be reassured that God can comfort your hearts in your time of need. Speak the words back to him regarding His promises. He is not a man that He shall lie. Draw closer and closer, I promise He will carry you through. You are and will continue to be in my prayers.
