“ During the 1980’s Regina Childs and I met at Hubert Elementary School in Detroit, MI, where I was assigned as the school principal. I was greatly impressed by Regina’s dedication to her position as an experienced primary grade teacher: She was loved and admired by her students, their parents, and all staff members who were fortunate enough to interact regularly with this kind and modest person.

There are not enough adjectives to describe the extraordinary Regina. For starters, she was dedicated, talented, even-tempered, prepared, reliable, dependable, co-operative, creative, trustworthy, focused, and self-effacing. A true professional, Regina gave her best in the classroom and elsewhere. She will be greatly missed and always remembered.

My deepest sympathy is extended to Regina’s family as we gather to mourn her loss. May she Rest In Peace,

With love,
