

Robert & Gwendolyn Walker

March 28, 2020 - April 4, 2020

Mr. Robert Walker passed from this life after a battle with illness on March 28, 2020. On April 4, 2020 his wife and soulmate joined him in eternity.

A memorial of their lives will be planned at a later date. Please leave the family a note of encouragement in our Tributes section.

Tribute Wall

“ Robert & Gwendolyn Walker

September 27, 2022 at 08:40 PM

“ Robert & Gwendolyn Walker

September 27, 2022 at 06:52 PM

“ With over 30 years worth of memories of my grandma, I have no clue where to begin. Some of my fondest memories of grandma Gwen include shopping at Oakland Mall and seeing her at the fashion fair counter and being greeted with a big smile and hug; playing in grandma's makeup and she told me how to apply my lipstick; getting picked up to go to the movies and stopping at Target for snacks before we went to the theater; her amazing laugh and bubbly personality; her love for all things fun; her love for karaoke (she bought me a microphone one Christmas); calling her and being greeted hey little girl; and so much more. She believed in me and I valued that.

Papa balanced grandma out very well. He was so so smooth and calm. I loved that about him. I recall dancing with him and grandma. Papa would light up like a tree. I fight tears typing these beautiful memories, but I am so grateful for each memory of both my grandparents. I loved surprising them on my visits home.

My last time seeing them was last year on grandma's birthday. I didn't tell them that I was in town. I just showed up to the party.

Papa couldn't stop hugging and kissing me. Grandma was so surprised.

Lauren Cowan - September 23, 2020 at 02:42 PM

YH

“ Gwen and Robert were originally my customers and became family instantly. They were kind and so much fun to be around. They were the best grandparents ever. They will be greatly missed.
Yolande Healey

---

YOLANDE HEALEY - May 05, 2020 at 01:52 PM

NB

“ The Williams family was my second home as a kid. My heart is extremely crushed behind this tragic and horrific nightmare that I wish I could wake up from. I'm praying so hard for there families. I love you all so much.

---

Nicola Burgess - April 13, 2020 at 06:06 PM

AW

“ Memories, of almost 52 years of my Aunt Gwen is probably one of the hardest things I will ever have to do. Aunts are an extension of your mother. So let me try to give some of the highlights, whenever we would travel to Detroit with great anticipation she would drive up to 157 Tennyson with shopping bags of make-up and perfumes ready to divvy it out to all the ladies in the house. Giving make-up tips as well. It was the best feeling, getting FREE makeup for zero dollars. To this day, whenever someone comes to visit whatever I have (overstock) I send friends and family home with a shopping bag. When I was a being a little edgy in my life, I'd tell it to her and she would high-five me, and say, "that's my niecey weecy"! The last few years she gave me some nuggets for life that I have heeded. My dad once said, you act or sound like all your aunts, and without a shadow of a doubt I knew which part of Gwen was in me and will always be. I'm not sure who be asking me to make my Jambalaya, now. When I first met Bobby he was always that soft spoken gentlemen that balanced my aunt out, as much as one can. I was always greeted with "hey babe" and soft kiss on the cheek that was so genuine and gentle. They were a huge part of our family. I will remember and miss them the rest of my life. Love & Miss you, Adri

---

Adriane Williams - April 12, 2020 at 08:49 AM

DP

“ My condolences goes out to my family. With lots of love it is a heartbreaking but we will raise as a family. My cousin was very fun and energetic all the time she didn't treat you any different like a big sister to me. I will truly missed dearly. My man Bobby had a heart of gold even I didn't know Bobby alot you can see the goodness in his heart just that vibe he had was unremarkable the little time that I knew him was just incredible genuine person down to earth that I will missed truly as well. Be blessed family I love you all. Love , Darrell

---

Darrell Phillips - April 11, 2020 at 10:56 PM

DB

“Gwen's home was my second home as a child and young man. Her children had become my brothers and sister. My first horror movie and Star Wars movie was seen with her. I also enjoying her fabulous record collection. I will miss you with all my heart auntie! I will be strong for your sister!
Your nephew, Denaz Bean

---

Denaz Bean - April 11, 2020 at 10:50 PM

KM

I have such good memories ❤️❤️ of this family. I used to sneak and wear her shoes to school me and Lisa. We got caught. My heart is broken , I have lost another mom. God bless the family 🙏.

---

kimberley micou - April 15, 2020 at 09:05 PM