“ Uncle Bob used to try to get me to go hunting with him. He had a rifle that was so powerful that after you shot it you had to take it apart and clean it. So being a big man of course he hunted bear. So he told me he was out one weekend and didn't see a bear until he was about to come home. He shot at the bear and he was pretty sure he missed. So he's in his tent cleaning the gun and looks up and that bear was in his tent door staring at him. He said luckily he froze and the bear left. From that day on Uncle Bob kept his 45 with him so he could shoot the bear in the head if that ever happens again. Needless to say I never did go hunting with Uncle Bob because I didn't want to be there if that bear remembered him. So many memories, the brick barbecue pit you built in Nana and Grandpas backyard, listening to Tigers games on the back porch, the baby blue Seville you let Tracey drive to come visit us. You will be missed but not forgotten!!! Love to Aunt Sonny, Tracey, Robin, and all the kids!!!
