“ *Dear Grandad,
I wish I could tell you this in person . But I am the luckiest kid in the world. You were the smartest and bravest person I knew and I know when I went to see you I didn't say much . But it was because I didn't want to cry in front of you and I was holding my tears. I will never forget you taking us on walks in our wagon and when we used to go on walks on the patio and eat watermelon. I never thought I'd loose you so fast. Thank you so much for everything you taught us and I'll never forget you grandad. I hope your in a better place and now you don't have to suffer anymore.❤️*

“ Grandad,
You are the funniest, smart, positive, optimistic, loving caring person ever. You are so much more. Which is why so many people love you. Your smile could make anyone who is sad the happiest person in the world. Your personality was so bright and positive it just made everyone want to be around you. I loved you so much and I still always will because you were one best part of my life. I'm the luckiest person ever because I got to know you and see you everyday. You've taught me so much and opened up so many opportunities for me. Which is why I want to thank you for everything you have done for me to make my life better. You showed me and everyone else in life it's important to be strong no matter what. I love you so much and always will
Love Paris

“ My father in law was great man,father,husband,and grandfather. He taught me how to be a great father to my kids and husband to my wife most important he taught me how to be a great man. I will always remember the talks we had weather it was personal or not. I’m going to miss talking politics and sports with you it was always great fun. I’m going to miss your sarcastic laughter when people did something stupid lol. We had great times I really felt like you was my dad not just my father in law. I will miss you God have a special person up there with him. And I know whatever he need fixing up there you will fix it lol. I Love You Always your son Larry Taylor.

“ Love is the most precious emotion that we share. To live life and to have lost it's so painful to bare. My heart smiles when I think of your laughter and smile. Sadness and anger takes over as I reminded of every tribulation and trial. God has you and has awaited this moment and prepared a mansion on his place.As I continue on with life I can only long to once again see your face. All of the memories you have made for me and the kids I will continue to cherish. I will keep on your hopes and dreams for us and won't let them perish. I love you so much the pain is so unbearable I don't know where to start. The only thing I have to hang on too is knowing out love and are spirits will never part.

I love you Dad❤️

“ My dad is and will always be the best man in my life. His smile would light up a room. No matter what I was going through I would go to him with my problems. As soon as we made eye contact when I walked in the room he would smile and say what’s up Tiff! He knew I was coming and laughed in comfort knowing his baby girl was coming. He’s my problem solver and my counselor. I’m grateful he has been there for all his grand babies. He taught each one of his grandchildren how to ride a bike a tie there shoes .He was at every game and track meet when he could manage.He took them to school and picked them up everyday until he couldn’t any longer.He’s my best friend and most and greatest of all he’s my DAD! I will miss his physical presence but I know he’s here with me in spirit. For he is never far. Our love has no boundaries and this journey has by far been the hardest. I’m blessed to say I’m his daughter and we faught the good fight together every day. I love my dad and I am blessed for everyday I spent on this earth with him. Our bond does not stop here. I know he’s with me and I take comfort in knowing that.I will miss him with all my heart.
“Dad I love you and always will . May your spirit be free and Jesus Christ lead and guide you in all your days. I miss you and I’m lost and but I know in time you will help me find my way. Thank you for the life you worked for me to have and the encouragement that has gotten me to where I am today. Thank you for telling me how proud you are of the women I have become and the influence on my life. I love you and your my heart and I’ll never let you go. I take comfort in knowing you’re out of pain and you can smile again. I love you and will miss you oh so dearly. I know I will see you again one day. I love you Tiff❤️💕❤️
