“ My most memorable moment with cousin Rodney was when I let him come stay with me and he asked me to promise not to tell anyone in the family until he left so I kept my promise until I heard the news of him. I was really trying to find this picture that I was able to get him to smile with me on but it was many years ago and I no longer have that phone anymore but man I would give anything to see that big huge smile that he had on that picture. We wasn't that much apart in age but I was 3 years older than my cousin and he use to act like he was my daddy but me being the way that I am I never listened. Lol. I love you cousin Rodney.

“ My fondest memories of my Nephew Rodney is that when he was just a little fella, maybe 3 or 4, he was my little shadow. I took him every where I went and enjoyed him tremendously. Our last conversation was a month ago and I am glad that I told him that I loved him and was looking forward to seeing him. Please keep the entire family in your prayers during this difficult time. RIH MY DEAR NEPHEW
