“ A great memory of Rodney and I was when our moms got us tickets to see Michael Jackson and the Jackson 5 at the Silverdome in Pontiac. We were sooo young. It was both of us first time at a concert. Kiss your mother for me and hug your play auntie Shirley (my mom) up there in heaven. Rest in paradise 🙏

“ Rodney I want to say I’m so sorry this had to happen to such a great man. I want you to get your rest you don’t have to worry about Adelaide & Aiden because she has gained a new family. I promise to help her in anyway possible like you’ve done for the last 9 years. I really appreciate our friendship Rodney a virtuous MAN that was always patient & positive. You gave it a good fight and for that I’ll salute you and say job well done !! #loveya4ever #gonetosoon #yourmorethanamemory

“ Man cuzz it's so hard to let you go so excuse me for being selfish. But if I could get 1 more hand shake and hug...if I could get one more game on the pool table....if I could get one more cook out with you. IT STILL WOULDN'T BE ENOUGH. Thank God for the memories I love and miss you soooo much. Until we meet again much love and respect.

“ Rodney was a really nice, down-to-earth guy who was always planning and taking my friend and her son on family outings. He and my best friend DeDe had been together for nine years, and I knew they were inseparably in love. His and Aiden's affection for one another was indescribable. He played a father figure in Aiden's life. He and DeDe intended to be together for the rest of their lives. We were heartbroken to learn he was no longer with us. Keep his memories alive for his fiancée (I LOVE YAW SO MUCH) family, and friends my condolences and always remember that he fought a good fight, it was a blessing to have him apart of our lives, Rodney will be greatly missed.

“ Hi Rodney,

I want to say thank you for being a father figure in my life when you were not working. Thank you for always taking me places I never been. Thank you for taking me to school and picking me up. Thank you for buying me toys. I'm going to miss you so much. I want to thank you for showing me how to dribble a basketball. I'm going to miss your mac n cheese my favorite. Love you Step dad.

“ Yes, Vera, You Said it, Rodney Loved to eat and he Loved The Challenge of beating his Dad Playing Pool. A Dad Who Loved Him Very Much! I Constantly Prayed for You Rodney and For Your Soul Salvation to Receive Jesus As Your Personal Saviour. Through Every Birthday, Christmas Card/Text and The Like, I Always Brought up The Need for You to Know Jesus For Yourself . The Last Time was Before They Put you on The Vent at Beaumont-Botsford Hospital. You were having a Hard Time Breathing.. And I told You Rodney, Just Repent and Whisper a Prayer to God, We can Pray, But Jesus Wants to hear from "You". You said "At This Point, I Will Try Anything! So We Are Praying That You Did. And Until You Breathed Your Last Breath, I Continued to tell You, Fight Rodney Fight, Repent and Receive Jesus As Your Saviour! And Now I Say it to All Who are On This Site...Repent and Receive Jesus Now. Time is Running Out.
Love You Rodney!

“ To EDDie AND THE Entire Satterwhite family and Rodney s Fiance|

We will certainly miss our nephew, but there are many memories to keep him alive in our hearts. We think of the many holidays and backyard affairs where he had to have two plates of food so he would not have to waste time to come back for a second, and he always had to have my punch so I had to make a lot when I know he s coming. That s the joy. However,death is a journey we all must past through To reach the fair land where the soul's born anew For man's born to die and his sojourn on earth is a short span of years beginning with birth.... and like pilgrimage we wonder until death take our hand..And d we start on our journey to God's Promised Land, a place where we'll find no suffering nor tears. where time. is not not counted by days, months or years....and in this fair city that God has prepared are unending joys to be happily shared, with all of our our loved one who patiently wait on death's other side to open The Gate

“ Hi Boo,

Where do I start? Thank you for trusting me. We are laying you to rest on Aiden's birthday and tomorrow is yours. My life will never be the same without you. My heart is broken bad. Our heart beats live and remain inside of you and us FOREVER! No one can take away the memories of what we had and shared. I want to thank you for giving me (us) almost nine years of your sacrificing and hard working life. I will forever be your Fiancé, we will reunite and revisit our love in Heaven as one. Aiden and I love you so much My Babe, My Boo, and My Teddy Bear. We are truly going to miss you,
