“ *From Sherry Brown
Ron (Ronnie) Moore, I can still remember when you came from Tennessee. You went to Tabernacle Baptist Church with my brother Lamar, my sister Sheila, your sister Bea and myself. This was a tradition for many years. I remember when Mrs. Mc Call started the Little Men's, social club with you, Rod and Lamar. Later Your Mom, started the Little Women's Club. We had a wonderful childhood. There are so too many wonderful memories to name. Just know that I will always think of you as a special friend. Sherry Thomas Brown*

Celebrating our Anniversaries - June 08, 2023 at 12:00 AM

“ Ron Moore my Friend and Brother

I met Ron in 1958, he was 7 and I was 8. I was Ron's first friend when he came to Detroit. Our mothers were already very good friends and lived on the same Underwood block. Ron and I soon became good friends too. Our friendship lasted over 65 years.

Growing up, I spent a lot of time at Ron's house. We used to enjoy sitting on the front porch telling jokes, playing the dozens, games and listening to and playing our 45 records. Motown was just starting up, and we soon had a favorite group The Temptations. Ron loved to dance and was always ready to get the party started and he knew how to do all the dances. Ron gave great parties! Ron's birthday parties were legendary. I often went over for dinner at Ron and Bea's house. His mother was a excellent cook. I also, attended the first Johnson/ Banks family reunion in Fostoria, Ohio with Ron.

We both attended Ruthruff Elementary School. We went to summer camp and were in the Cub Scouts. We played touch football in the streets, and we both played the trombone at school. He often said he had to play the trombone because of me and our moms.

Like me, Ron was a Food Network addict. He was especially interested in shows about grilling and smoking ribs. We would share information on cooking the perfect baby back ribs. We would often get together at his house or mine celebrating the holidays, with friends and good food.

My wedding anniversary (with my wife Debra) is on September 7th and Ron and Pat got married on September 2nd. So, always looked forward to celebrating our anniversaries together and did so, for many years.

I will miss his smile, conversation, and charisma, but he will always be my Friend & Brother!!

Ron I know your are in heaven teaching the angels to Hustle.

Heavenly Father, we ask for your mercy and grace for Ron as he begins his journey into eternal life. Please bring him into your loving arms and grant him peace and rest.

AMEN

Rod McCall
