“ My fondest memories of cousin Ronnie were his road trips over the years down to Nashville, TN from Detroit, MI when I was a kid. I was always excited to see my Uncle's and cousin's. Ronnie to me was always the life of the party. I was always excited to hear his stories of his time with the Detroit Police Department as well as his adventures with Kenneth, Michael, and Gregory. Never a dull moment. Thank you for the memories Ronnie.

“ Our family members have known Ronnie since we were in our early teens because we were neighbors and he worked in the neighborhood stores stocking shelves and delivering groceries. We loss contact but realized he was co-workers with 2 family members and we were blown away to learn our children had become friends not knowing we were buddies since our teens. Our grandchildren were in school together and friends as well. We're gonna miss him so much. He truly loved God, family and friends. May God strengthen and Bless the entire family.
