“ From everyone at Nyman Turkish PC in Southfield we extend our sincerest condolences. Roneil was scheduled to start as a legal assistant with our firm before his passing, and it was truly an honor and a pleasure to get to know him through the interview process. Although my time with him was fleeting, he had an impact on me and I will forever remember that. All my prayers are with Roneil's family during this difficult time.

“ I've been reflecting back on all the good times and amazing memories that Roneil and I have shared over 20 years of friendship. And while there are far too many to recount, the consistent thread was always laughter, joy, and optimism about fulfilling our “wildest” ambitions. Roneil was always so proud of his friends and family, and he let people know it. I always appreciated that and how he consistently made me feel like I was being my best self. I will miss Roneil deeply, but I look forward to reuniting and sharing laughs on the other side someday.

Much love, miss you homie!

“ I attended high school and middle school with Roneil which included attending some surprisingly rowdy Latin conventions and long rides from Lakeshore Drive to Belle Isle. By pure coincidence me, Roneil and Kavita ended up taking the same astronomy class one summer at UofM.

Our paths would further cross multiple times as we began our respective careers on the East Coast.

It is painful to see such a joyous and promising life fade away so abruptly.

“ Roneil was kind, generous, and affable. In addition, he held a spirit of betterment, always striving for good. I was his professor at The University of Virginia and he taught me a great deal about being human. I think the words of John Wesley match Roneil's legacy well: “Do all the good you can, by all the means you can, in all the ways you can, in all the places you can, at all the times you can, to all the people you can, as long as ever you can.”

*May God hold you in the palm of his hand, Dear Roneil,

“ We met in Ms. Haug’s 1st grade class and in the years that followed we became close friends. I have so many memories with you. Being locker buddies, seeing Mean Girls in theaters twice because it was just that good 🤩, riding around in your jeep listening to music, driving to South graduation together (I’ll never forget how loud you screamed my name when I walked across the stage), U of M visits, all the fun times with Emma, endless inside jokes, birthdays and parties, and so much more. Back then you’d tell me I was the sister you never had.

When you showed up, it mattered. You could be so caring, you were hilarious and so fun to be around. I’ll never forget your contagious laughter. As I looked through old pictures, I was flooded with emotions remembering some of the many great times we shared. I couldn’t pick just one to post. Like most people that grow up and settle down, you and I grew apart. No matter how much things changed between us these past few years, I will always cherish our friendship and I will forever consider you the brother I never had.
Love you Roneil.

“ As I try to find the right words to say, I'm struck by how truly unbelievable it is that we are here in this situation together. The world has lost a person that was so much larger than life... how is it possible?

I met Roneil in high school at Grosse Pointe South through a mutual friend. He was the type of person who knew how to make connections with anyone in any room. He brought energy and humor to any situation. Always conscious of appearances and full of pride in himself, he was a consummate fashionable dresser who made an immediate impression.

He had a huge impact on my life in high school and in college. Knowing him taught me many lessons about life. I saw him be a loving friend. He had big dreams for himself and always wanted to make his mom and granny proud.

People grow up, life changes us all. The memories I've shared feel centuries old. I'm thankful for the time I had with Roneil all those years ago. I know he is someone I will never ever forget. His giggle, his jokes, his ability to turn any phrase into a catch phrase or any moment into a party... he was special.

I have been praying and will continue to pray for Roneil as he makes this transition. I pray for his family who I know love him so much, his friends who will always remember how much fun he was... and most emphatically, I pray for Kavita and his girls.

A priceless memory: I was with Roneil the day his mom surprised him with his beloved Red Jeep- a moment of complete and overflowing enthusiasm that I will never forget seeing. Pure joy.

“ Roneil grew up very near me, but we really became friends in college. He was a year older and was the first person to welcome me to hang out when I got to campus. We lived together after college and made a lot of great memories during this time, finding our way. That was the year leading up to Roneil and Kavita getting married, and that wedding was an unforgettably awesome day. Roneil had great ambitions and was committed to social justice. Many people admired this about him, and he inspired a lot of folks around him. On a lighter note, he is also the only person to ever beat me at the only video game I've ever been good at, Ken Griffey Jr Presents MLB on SNES. He was a guitar hero legend, too! We hit the gym together, bar starred, copped Jordans at the mall, all of that cruisin' in his Beamer or Jeep.

We will miss you dearly Roneil. I can't believe you're gone! RIP 🙏

“ Roneil was the first person I met when I moved to Grosse pointe at age 7. We met between our two houses on Harcourt which was a block away from where I lived on Bedford and a block away from where he lived on Trombly. He taught me how to play basketball and introduced me to hip hop and so many other things I still cherish today. He told me two weeks ago when we spoke that he was getting kind of chubby but could still beat me in a game of hoops. During our senior year of high school his family moved out of Grosse Pointe and he came to live with us part time so he could continue to attend Grosse Pointe South. Being an only child it meant the world to me. I could never keep up with Roneil. He always had the coolest clothes, toys, video games, music, cars etc. we both had Motorola pagers in the 6th grade for God knows what reason and we would watch Juvenile music videos and count our allowances with our pagers strapped to our And1 basketball shorts. Granny and Roneil’s mom were always kind to me even though I was a little trouble maker at best and took me to many family gatherings over the years. I’m not sure they will ever fully understand the profound positive impact their presence and influence has had on my life. I will always love Roneil for the times we had and even more for the times we couldn’t. I love you Roe. I bought a pair of Iverson answers in your honor today. I will think of you every time I zip them up. You still owe me that game of hoops. As you would always say “we gotttttttaaaaaa goooooooooo” Love Toph.
