“ Al Lott And Family

Al,

I recently learned of Ronnie's transition and was deeply saddened to learn the manner in which he passed. My deepest and sincerest condolences to you and your family.

Friendship is feeling the heart of another during loss. During times like this it really helps to know that your friends are thinking and praying for you. I'm so very sorry that you and your family have to experience this pain. Losing a brother tragically, in this same manner, is a loss that I am personally familiar with. I know your sorrow. Through it all, I learned of and felt God's comforting and amazing Grace. With that said, I pray that you and your family will find comfort and peace in him.

After a while, the happy memories of the fun times you and your family shared with Ronnie - his laughter, friendliness, and sense of humor, will bring a smile to your hearts. I do recall years back that Ronnie and my brother Jerry were buddies - and they had good times.

Please know that Jesus is a friend that sticks closer than a brother (Proverbs 18:24). At times when sadness seems too much to bear, he bears our grief and carries our sorrows. May the Lord of Angel Armies protect, provide comfort, and keep you and your family strong.

I wanted to reach out and share how my family got through it and wrote what God put on my heart.

Remember Al "Eastside" people are strong. So keep the faith, stay blessed, and take care.

I will keep you and your family in my thoughts and prayers.

Peace and Love as Always,
