“Roosevelt was my second-best friend, and my wife was my best friend. He was my good neighbor down the street from me. We saw each other regularly. We used to enjoy each other's company, talking in front of his garage. I want to apologize to the family and my neighbors. I have been in the hospital and could not attend the funeral. He was one of the first to move to this neighborhood. He shared a lot of history with me. I will never forget him.

“My dear cousin Roosevelt. My Mother's first cousin, they was a brother and sister children. Roosevelt taught me family over everything. He visited us every year in Pensacola, Florida. I talked to him often on the phone, he would cuss me out when he didn't hear from me in a while always asking you changed your number and didn't tell me. Rest easy cousin I will miss you love always ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ ❤️ 🙏 🙏 🙏 🙏 🙏.

“I will remember you, will you remember me?...
Roosevelt Lyons aunt was married to my uncle.
Our roots run deep in a lil town called Monroeville, Alabama.
Death makes angels of us all and leaves wings where we had shoulders.
Rest in peace and power, Roosevelt Lyons

He was such a good friend to my aunt Isabella Slade and cousin Maenora Nickelson from childhood. Would always love to come home each year in September for Antioch #1 Revival in Tunnel Springs, AL. The three of them always attended the Monroe County Training School/JF Shields grand reunion. We will truly miss him.

“ I will miss this wonderful man who I've known since childhood. Visiting on Sundays with my parents, listening to him and Mrs. Lyons go back and forth with some of the most interesting stories. Those are memories I will always cherish. R.I.P. cousin.
