“ A Love Letter to my Father in Law

From the first time we met, you accepted me into your life and your heart with open arms.

I felt the love from the very start.

You will always hold a special place in my heart. ❤️

I promise to continue loving your son, Rodney (my husband) and keep him surrounded with as much love and support that is needed to maneuver through this difficult time and beyond.

I pray that God will comfort the entire Wilson family.

Until we meet again.

I love you, handsome 😊

Rest Easy 🙏

Your Daughter in Law

“ Growing up on Lawton Street was very special. We had many mother and father figures that were our gatekeepers that kept us safe and free from harm. Now we see them as legends, and it was a community of love. Mr. Wilson was one of them and may He rest in peace. Always with love the Craighead family.

“ He was my “secret old man crush”... he named me “Kim-BEAR-lee” because he LOVED the way I kept my little brothers in line... he knew I didn’t play LOL

You can rest now, sweet man! I will forever and proudly carry KIM-BEAR-LEE as my honorary name... as I’ll continue to guide my brothers (blood or not) into being the men they are meant to be...

A kind, friendly gentleman. I never saw him without a smile. My dad loved their phone conversations throughout the years. May he rest in eternal peace. Treasure all the good times!!!! 🍷 🍷 🍷 Jan & Charles Small
