“ One who praise, prayed twice. What a divine intuition. In my little exposition to ministrations and personal study on the word of God, I have never in my entire life spent so far, heard such a divine quote. Grand-Ma. I can remember vividly in year 2022 here in California, telling you that, I thank God almighty that I mate you alive, the reasons are reserved for my personal consumption. My experiences with you, informed me of your virtues and values, your personal dedication to God. And that was what gave you such inspiration about praise and prayers. Your love and concern about our identity in God stood firm in your counseling to us. Thank God I mate you alive comes as a result of my personal study of your life value, virtues and what you stands for. Your deep love and mercy, forgiveness to mankind is your personal traits. We know you battled with sickness, but you did not battle with death, and because you did not battle with death, you will not battle with resurrection and eternal life. Because Jesus has conquered grave and death for you. Matt 5:7. Blessed are the merciful, for they shall obtain mercy. May the mercy of God wake you up, on the resurrection morning. Farewell .....Mummy .

“ My beloved grandma, thank you.

I am incredibly grateful and blessed to have known such a woman. You were the love that held me together during my most difficult periods, providing me the quiet strength I needed. I'm going to miss the beautiful, simple moments we shared; our morning walks and the long hours we spent binge-watching movies together will always hold a special place in my heart.

You taught me kindness, hospitality, and gentleness - the kind of wisdom that is irreplaceable. I'll miss your lovely laugh and sweet hugs that brought me nothing but peace and comfort. Who I am today is a result of the love you poured into me, and I will carry your light in my heart until we meet again.

I love you ❤️

“ My dearest Mom,

Your love was the quiet strength that carried me through life, and your warmth made every day brighter. Even through your long illness, you showed a courage and grace that will forever inspire me. I will always cherish your kindness, your laughter, and the countless ways you made our world better just by being in it.

Though you are no longer here, and life will never be the same without you, your love remains with me- steady, guiding, and unending. I miss you deeply, and I will carry you in my heart always.

“ Mama,

It is still hard to believe you are gone. Thank you for the love, kindness, and warmth you showed me and my children. You were not just a mother, but a strong and graceful woman whose presence brought comfort to those around you.

Your love lives on through your children and your grandchildren, and I know Ivan and Olivia will always carry a part of you with them. You will be deeply missed, but never forgotten.

May God grant you eternal rest and give the family the strength to bear this loss.

Rest in perfect peace, Mama Rose. 🕊️
