“ Ruthie as I called her was the glue that held the family together with her sister, Ethel. Even though she had no children of her own, she was always shopping for her Nieces and nephews, cousins and anyone who needed her help. A marvelous cousin, always welcoming you on Maine Street, cooking and preparing for her Alabzma cousins. God has special place for her where she can meet her parents. 12 siblings and all of her family members. Eternal Rest Grant unto her Oh Lord andet perpetual light shine upon her.
