“ Hello, I'm my brother Samuel, the baby sister. I was his little helper and runner when he was around sixteen or seventeen. On Fridays, when he was going out, he would hire me to assist him in getting dressed. I would iron his shirt and pants, pick them up from the dry cleaners, and shine his shoes. I felt like I had a special role because my big brother relied on me to help him look dapper. Additionally, as we grew up, there were eleven of us, and we would tease each other. We teased Sam about his dimples because he claimed they were like those of Kirk Douglas, the actor. Sam would practice smiling like Kirk Douglas, proudly showing off his lovely dimples. My brother, Samuel, we will miss you dearly, but we will see you again. I love you, my brother, Sam! ❤️

*The Bass family is truly in my prayers.
I am Sam's sister in law, Linda.
As long as I have known Sam, he has been very close to God.
Whenever the family would have "family dinners", Sam would always bless the food with beautiful words of grace and thankfulness.
Sam, you left an impact on my life and you will be greatly missed
