“ I was saddened to hear of the loss of Sam. We grew up in the same neighborhood (Chestnut St.) in Winston-Salem, NC. We were also classmates at Atkins High School. He was smart, articulate and a perfect gentleman. We were not surprised when he was elected president of our junior class. To his family: Please accept my sincere condolences, and may the loving memories of him help you find peace.

“ I met Sam when I began working at the Michigan Dept of Civil Rights in June 1978. Sam, Buford Buckley, Barbara Hardy and I made a great team. He was always an advocate for others. We kept in touch when Sam left to work at another department and after he retired, meeting for an occasional lunch. He showed up at Sinbad's Restaurant on one of those occasions wearing a white suit! He was always dressed to the nines! I will miss his smile and his laugh. Sincere condolences to Taj, Shea and their families. The world has lost a gentle soul.
