“ My deepest, sincere condolences and prayers to the Glasker Family. God whispered in his ear, extended his hand and said, “come with me”, now take your rest. Mr. Glasker was an outstanding gentleman, a man of character, wisdom and distinction with a magnificent personality. Keep his legacy of a life well lived and the many sweet and everlasting memories very close to your hearts as he will always be with each of you. May you find comfort in the days ahead knowing Mr. Glasker is safe in Heaven wrapped in God’s arms and peacefully at rest. God Bless! Lovingly, Angie Jeffers Chapman, Culpeper, VA.

“ Aunt Erma,

We pray God comforts and strengthens you. 🌸

We are so grateful to you, Uncle Sam, and all who planned so many special family and school reunions. They mean so much to us, especially since our family did not reside nearby. We will always treasure our visits to Virginia with family and friends.

God truly blessed Uncle Sam with a rich, accomplished, and historical life. I always enjoyed listening to him share the history of The Glasker Family and The George Washington Carver High School in Culpeper, VA. I know both meant so much to him and our entire family...

Rest In The Peace Of Our Most High God!

Until We Meet Again,

Much Love ❤️💕💕
