“ Shanta (I affectionately called Ta), so many years seeing EVERY DAY with ups and downs trying to get through the workday...we laughed, joked, cried, prayed and shared convos of family (LOVED AND CHERISED, VERY SUPPORTIVE) life journeys. Super sweet, caring, strong and outspoken. It was the "three" of us for the past few years. I will tremendously miss. My prayers to her husband, children and family.

“ I’ve known Shanta for about 10 years, from the time she was working in Liver Living Donor, and then as a financial Coordinator. She had the biggest heart, and the strongest work ethic. She spoke of her children with so much love, and of course, her husband. Those of us who worked alongside her are grieving, and send much love to her family. She was a shining star in the transplant institute and was instrumental to giving so many patients the gift of life. May her memory be a blessing.
