“ My memory of Sharon will always be her grace and her kindness that she shared with our family. She took good care with our mom and cared for her deeply. I will always be grateful for her service with my mom, and for her friendship. on those days I was lonely and missed my mom, she often filled me with hope. She lead a remarkable life, and we will think of her always and hope that she is at peace with the angels. Suzi Benaderet

“ In Loving Memory of Ms. Sharon

It is truly a blessing to have known and befriended Ms. Sharon. She was a remarkable woman whose kindness and generosity touched many lives, including my own. From the moment she became a part of my life, she consistently showed care, support, and encouragement in ways that I will never forget.

Ms. Sharon always looked out for me and my family. Whether it was helping me find job opportunities, checking in on my children, or simply making sure my home and family were doing well, she always made it a priority to uplift those around her. Her willingness to help others came from a genuine place in her heart, and she never hesitated to extend a helping hand.

What made Ms. Sharon so special was not just what she did, but the spirit in which she did it. She cared deeply for people and always wanted to see others succeed and live well. Her presence brought comfort, encouragement, and positivity. Knowing that someone truly had your back the way she did was something very rare and special.

I am grateful for every moment and memory shared with her. She was more than just a friend—she was a blessing in my life and in the lives of many others. Her kindness, compassion, and generosity will always be remembered.

Although she may no longer be with us physically, her impact and the love she shared will continue to live on in our hearts.

With heartfelt gratitude for having known her,

Quiana Joe

“ Trying to describe you in a set of words is just won't do. Auntie you are one of my motivations for traveling the way I do. Growing up I just knew that once I became of age, I would travel like my aunt. On my next cruise or venture, it will be dedicated to you. The memories I have I will always cherish and take with me day to day. Forever love you 💕

“ Sharon was always the picture of grace — jazzy, polished, and carrying herself like a true lady everywhere she went. Even as a little girl, I remember looking at her and thinking, “Miss Sharon has it all together.” She was the kind of woman whose presence spoke before she ever said a word.

Her elegance, her spirit, and the way she moved through life with class and confidence will never be forgotten. She will truly be missed as the beautiful, classy lady she always was.

With love, Cousin Nikki

“ Sharon was with my mom and our family for several years. She used to say that even in very sad or difficult times, you can still find sweet and special moments and treasure them. She called those moments “kisses.” My mother might say just a couple of words or give one of us a certain look, and Sharon would say with her big, warm smile, “See that? That was a kiss.” She noticed how even the smallest things really mattered and could be held onto as blessings and love.

Sharon, every moment with you was a kiss.

“ My Aunt Sharon was a very special woman. She loved and cared about us, wanted the best for us and showed her love for all of us. It's hard to believe she's no longer with us but we will forever remember her for the sweet, kind, caring, loving person she was to our family. I'm so thankful we got to spend more than one vacation with her this past year.

“ Sharon, I lit a blue candle for you. Your favorite color. How can I describe such a beautiful personality. I trusted Sharon with my most prize possession, my mother (Mae is what Sharon called her). I'm sure a lot of you guys have heard about her and her famous one liners. I was so worried about Sharon staying with my mother, but she came in and put at ease all of the fear I had of leaving my mother. When I informed my mother Sharon would be sitting with her she said little Sharon from Mandalay? That little girl? I told her yes. Sharon came in and stood on business. Sharon just had a way with people and an infectious smile. I can still hear her saying “I got this” and yes she did. She often reminded me that there's only one Sharon and that was the truth. No one could even come close. She was special in every way. The mold was broken and so are our hearts. You will never be forgotten. Heaven got an Angel with you.

“ Only now can I face the reality that my Sharon has earned and wings! She has been in my life for over 6 decades and I don't know how to face life without her! I'm honored to be buddy's Godmother and witness Sharon raise the most remarkable Son! I've been so proud how Sterling has been taking care of his Mothers legacy during this most difficult time! On this day, we had come home from church and was just being silly! May Gods Grace & Mercy continue to cover us all!

In memory of my cousin Sharon. Sharon, you were a special person, with a most beautiful smile and a heart full of kindness, love and thoughtfulness. The days in Alabama and my visits to Detroit are times I will remember with joy. You were my little cousin with a big heart and I loved you like a sister--not a cousin. I will truly miss you and was looking forward to your visit this March 2026 but God had other plans. Rest in peace 'til we meet again Sharon. I love you, but God luvs you More. “ Sharon Marie King, lifelong friend from early childhood, raised up in church, attended Sunday School and sang in the choir together from early childhood, was a faithful friend. She genuinely possessed positive energy and was a polite and cheerful person. Her friendship was unconditional and loyal, sticking together through adversity. One who was steadfast, honest, encouraging, and offered moral support. She was a friend who exemplified the Biblical characteristics of a true friend. Standing by through tough times, not just good ones, offering good advice or perhaps sitting quietly with a listening ear. She was selfless and considerate of others whatever they're state of being was. She conveyed empathy in times of crisis, building one another up, helping carry one another's burden with encouragement, and making you welcome to her home or sharing a meal and beverage.

Aside extending loyal friendship, Sharon was a proud, loving, attentive, caring and devoted mother, all the while nurturing and raising her awesome son, Buddy.

Sharon was the epitome of what a true friend is and more. True friendship is not a thing that contributes to an easy way of life, but a covenant of loyalty, truth, and love that reflects Christ and points us back to God. She was a great friend.

May the love and peace of God rest upon, comfort and strengthen Buddy, the entire family, and all the friends. In the midst of the tears, may the good times be cherished and the fondest memories of Sharon light the corners of every mind with a smile!

God bless and rest her soul in heavenly peace. 🙏

Forever in our hearts,
Chiquita H.

“ Sterling,

You are my brother and I love you and Spencer with all my heart. You have been a great friend to me through many of my trials, including the loss of my mother and other tribulations in my life. I deeply admire Sterlings character and the love and respect he has always shown his mother. Mrs. Sharon truly raised an incredible son, father, and husband. Her legacy clearly lives through him. It just breaks my heart to watch yall experience the immense pain of losing your mother.

During times like this, I hold on to the promise in scripture: “The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” — Psalm 34:18.

Sterling, remember God promises in Isaiah 41:10 that “He will strengthen you and uphold you”. He will uplift you, strengthen you, and carry you through the days ahead. I love you, and I will continue to pray for you and your entire family.

With Sympathy, Sha'Tika A.

“ Sterling,

As you grieve the loss of your mother, may you feel the nearness of God holding you and your family in his love.

“The Lord is close to the brokenhearted and saves those who are crushed in spirit.” — Psalm 34:18.

May God’s peace comfort your heart, and may the love your mother gave you always remain a light in your life.

“ My cousin Sharon was more than family, she was truly my friend. We talked and chatted on the regular, and I'll miss those conversations more than I can put into words.

Just this past Christmas, she invited me to Florida, and I'm so grateful I went. We had such a great time laughing, talking, just enjoying each other's company like we always do and if you knew Sharon, you know she probably already had everything planned out, I showed up and followed directions like a good cousin 😊. That's a memory that will always make me smile.

Sharon was soft-spoken, kind, and steady. I would stop by her home to visit, and she always made me feel welcome. When I received my kidney transplant, she was a big help and such an encouragement to me. That meant more than she probably ever knew.

I wasn't expecting her to leave us so fast. My heart hurts, but I'm grateful for every call, every visit, every moment.

Rest on, cuz. I'll look for you in the sky someday.

Love always,
your cousin Shawn 🙏
