“ I will always remember Sharon from the FARMER JACK days. I worked with her from 1980-1993. I'll never forget her sweet demeanor, beautiful smile and witty comments. My deepest condolences to the family and love ones especially daughter Kim. You are never alone when you have the love and support of those around you. My wish for you at this time is of Peace and Comfort, as you celebrate the Life of someone Very Special. Love Lorenzo Clark & family.

“ It was truly a joy to know Sharon over the past several years. Sharon will be missed by myself and all the other Tuesday and Thursday senior bowlers at Harbor Lanes. You always knew where Sharon was bowling as she was usually donned in a jersey or sweatshirt of her beloved football team, the Detroit Lions. God Bless Sharon as the Lord welcomes her home,
