“ Sharon Parker was the best. She had an infectious sense of humor. Along with her sense of humor, she wore many hats as the school secretary. She was in control. What ever your problem was she could solve it along with ten other problems as well as tell a joke at the same time. When a group of us retired we would go to lunch as often as we could. It was evident that Sharon’s health was declining. She never complained, lunch was always one more joke, one more story and sometimes one more game. Sharon, we will miss you.

“ My mother was an amazing woman. She knew how to connect with so many people and bring them joy. She was not only a mother to me, but in so many ways a mother to many of her FLICS students. I couldn’t have asked for a better mother. She would give her last to help you. My mom gave and gave and gave and never once questioned what she would receive in return. I love you so much mom and I will miss you. But if one thing does make me smile, is to know that you are in heaven receiving your reward for all the good you have done on this earth.

“ We began as colleagues over 30 years ago, but in time, Sharon became one of our dearest friends. Her sense of humor and legendary jokes were the heart of our retired teachers’ luncheons. She was caring and courageous and never complained even when her physical condition began to deteriorate. We love you, Sharon, and you will be greatly missed.

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Sharon on two or three dinner occasions at Deon’s home with his lovely wife and friend Tamara. She was such a sweet soul as every time I came over I sat at the kitchen high table with her and had great conversation with her. She was so funny, she would have me laughing in tears and I loved the stories she told of growing up being big sis and mom to the family. God bless her soul, she will truly be missed..... May she rest well in heaven and in peace in a better place. 🙏🌸❤️
