“ Shelly was just a very kind and good man who was friendly and helpful to everyone. Never met a person who could say anything other than how much they liked him and admired him for his selfless work with kids. His loss will certainly be felt! Praying for your family and know Shelly is resting in power, in the presence of God for eternity.

“ Shirley and sons, my sincere condolences to you all. Shelly was a wonderful man indeed. He and my late husband Jack McChester were college and frat buddies. Shelly kept in touch over the years to check on how well Jack's boys were doing. I was forever grateful and would passed his words of encouragement onto the boys. RIP my friend. The world lost a caring man that made a difference to young men seeking their paths. Be Bless Shirley and family. Tough times, but he would want you live in his memories, not sad at all. Carry On.....

“ Shelley was a brother to me, I was as he used to say "My brother from another mother" We worked together but we became friends through that work. I love him as a friend and brother, I have been gone a while but we always made sure to stay in touch and every time no matter how long, it was right back where we left off.

I know Shelley impacted hundreds of not thousands of youth through mentoring and basketball. He was giving, loving and the world has lost a bright light, but his impact will live through the generations he mentored.

I pray for Shirley and the family, that his spirit will continue to lift them up and follow the path he led. Rest in peace my friend, we will meet again one day

“ So sad. Shelly was a gentle soul. Wonderful to work with. Always a smile for everyone

Both he & Shirley loved coming to my Christmas parties and connecting with all the ATT/SBC friends.

He was also an inspiration to the kids he mentored in sports.

He will be missed. Condolences & prayers to Shirley and his family
