“ Peaches was always so kind to me. She was one of the "elders" of first cousins and with me being in the high 20's in the grandchildren line, I just have fond memories of her being so sweet to me and she loved to play golf! My heart is saddened and I send prayers and love to all of the family members. God is close to the broken hearted.

“ We didn't see each other often and I am so grateful that this summer I had the chance to share time with Peaches. We laughed about the dessert that she felt was too ugly to serve. It was delicious and nobody cared. My heart is heavy.

“ Was a pleasure bowling with her. She would thank me when I gave her bowling tips. I will miss her kind smile. To her family. It is ok to grieve. Let God give you comfort.

I just found out about sheral's passing after trying to contact her to schedule our long-standing ( spanning over 40 years ) semi-annual lunches/visit at her place. We shared the same birthday ( one year apart ) and bonded over that fact the first night we met at a bcbsm Christmas party. We became, and stayed friends for all those years and our visits were only interrupted by the pandemic and the illnesses we were both experiencing. We had planned to get together once my medical issues were resolved, but unfortunately, it was too late. Sheral, whom I designated " ms. Fifth of november " was a true, genuine friend, and I will miss her terribly.... " mr. Fifth of november "
