“ Some of you, I have personally reached out to in an effort to thank you for supporting my late wife, ShaRhonda (Simone), coupled with your support and love that you have shown toward her and my son Ryan in my absence. It doesn't matter the role you played, no matter how big, or small; I am humbled and grateful by your support. ShaRhonda was an amazing woman and is missed by the lives she touched.

“ To my wonderful wife, I finally made it home to our son. Rest in peace until I see you again. You left me feeling very proud, and honored by your presence and the gift bestowed upon me. Thank you your fight, your loyalty, commitment; and your fight - you fought a good fight babydoll. You were indeed a remarkably, amazing person, and I will cherish you forever.

“ My beautiful cousin! I miss you so much! So sorry the 1 person you expected to feel love from showed it to someone else. 😞 Family loves you, and Ryan most certainly does. We will NEVER forget your beautiful spirit, and feisty personality. My heart breaks all over again each time I think of you. Please hug Cam for me. Love you always!

Dean Scott - October 12, 2019 at 08:47 PM

“ From the 1st time we met face-to-face you accepted me as family. Will be forever grateful for the love you gave me cousin. We shared so many life experiences, and so impressed that you made it through so much with a smile on your face. Still proud of you for being strong for everyone else. We really thought there was more time. The level of pain, and sadness I still have, doesn't compare to what others, who have had a lifetime with you, are experiencing. Flowers sent were the ones I talked about sending you. I'm having so much trouble getting past this, but...knowing your love for family helps. Christine 💔

“ Pooter was the coolest big cousin ever! It's hard to imagine my life without her and Da-bye. I miss them both everyday. Heaven is lit right now, with two of the most fun people there. Aunt Shelia, Uncle Ronald and Corey I love y'all and praying for peace and comfort to you. ❤️

“ Dear Sheila and Ronald, my heart breaks for you with all the heartache you have experienced this past year. There is nothing I could say or do that could possibly comfort you. All I can say is I genuinely care about you and love you. My prayers are with you but I know nothing can heal those wounds of losing your children.

“ We know you are safe in the arms of the Lord! You showed so much courage and strength in the midst of your battle. Your will to live was greater than anyone we have ever seen. Just like Jesus died and rose again... you are now living a life of no more pain... no more worries... no more cancer! You are living a joyous eternal life with God! We pray for your parents, we pray for your son, we pray for your family and friends who will miss you on this earth. May God give us peace and comfort. But someday my beautiful niece, we will meet again! Rest well!!❤️🙏🌸

“ I will never forget the week you spent with Auntie Vicki...the science museum, take your daughter to work. your mom let you hang with me since I did not have a child of my own..you were so organized just like her. You were only 12 but you were already ahead of your time... my coworkers talked so highly of you. I will miss you little lady. I didn't get to talk to you much after you became an adult but you always had my heart

“ Ronnie's love for Ryan was unsurpassed. She loved him with every bone in her body. All the way from their matching shoes to her unconditional love she had for him. They were inseparable. She would go out for the night drop him off to spend the night and before the evening was over be right back picking him up saying how much she miss him. She was an ANGEL on earth and now I know she is looking over Ry as his guardian ANGEL. ❤️❤️❤️❤️❤️

“ You were more than a cousin you were my sister..... I promise to continue to make you proud. I will cherish all our laughs and cries. You were the strongest person I knew. You taught me so much over the years and I thank God He allowed me to have time with you. From late night text talking about any and everything to just a quick I love you text throughout the day. You showed me a different level of strength and I thank you!!!! I can't stop listening to your voicemails 😔 I know you wouldn't want me to cry but my heart is so full. I love you pooh rest up beautiful give my granny a kiss for me 🙏💔
