Sending our love and prayers for Josh and your family and friends. I can hear you and Danielle laughing on the phone about the antics of Mrs. Mildred or Ms. Dee, fried Bologna sandwiches 🥪. a 🌭 hotdog. All the children in your life , and the many people you cared for or shined your light on, wherever you were... You are so loved and will be missed. But we know God loves you more, so we will hold on to our memories ❤️🙏😭

“ My deepest sympathy and condolences to my family and friends. This one really saddens me when I first got the news. When I heard that the surgery went well I thought she was out of danger, so I thought... but God has the last say, and we must go by His will. I just thank God for the wonderful and great time we all shared with Tabb while she was still here. No more pain and suffering my dear friend, it was that time for God to call you home, we may not agree with His decision, but He is the best knowing. So sorry for our loss, I'm sure gonna miss my dear friend Tabb. May God continue to grant the family strength and comfort during this difficult time for us all. May God Rest Sis. Tabb Soul In Peace Everlasting Eternal. Always Much Love Fam. 🙏👩🏻❤️🌹

“ To my dear childhood friend words can't express how I feel right now. This is truly a loss, way too soon. I'm going to miss the daily phone calls we had, me sharing pictures of the grandkids with you me telling you about how crazy my days were and always encouraging you to keep up with Josh. We didn't see each other as often, but I would always try to make it my business to attend family functions so I could see you. So thankful to God for placing such a gentle soul in my life at such a young age. Your presence is going to be missed but never forgotten. Thinking of you always my friend with much love. 💕💕💕

From Rose and I, to our sister! Tab, you know I'm writing this to include Rosanne because she's not on FB. We always joked and said she's gotta be incog-negro lol. We've all become best friends back in 96! 1996! the year I moved here from Chicago. Through out the years you've helped us deal with so much, ppl wouldn't have a clue! You were not only our sister, friend, but our therapist as well! I found it very hard typing this message to you and in a lot of ways I can't believe you are really gone! I mean really, we literally spoke everyday and if not everyday definitely every Monday, Wednesday and Friday during your dialysis! I would like to say thank you so very much for being the friend you were to us! You are and will be definitely missed and we love you sis! Until we meet again! Rest well!!!

“ My dear sisterfriend... I will forever cherish our friendship and memories. I still tell people about our college days, when my mom would send me a box. She would always have something in there for you and you knew it! You would meet me at the door telling me I had a package and my mom told me to give you your portion! Whenever I heard someone yell "Sharon Jones", I knew it had to be you! Thank for being a great friend for so many years. Thank you for sharing your beautiful family with me. God be with your son and all of your loved ones during this time. Rest easy, Tab! Until we meet again...💔
