“ Aunt Terry was a beautiful lady. When I was engaged to Kristoffer she made herself known by sending gifts first to my bridal shower and then the wedding and a couple years later to my baby shower. She was always very thoughtful and kind. I respected her ability to handle business as I watched her do this when we lost Grandma Patricia Davison a few years ago.

All who knew her seemed to really love her. I know her children, grandchildren, sister, nieces and nephews all feel a tremendous loss today because she was a wonderful, loving and supportive person. Seek God for your guidance and comfort on these days when you would seek the wisdom of her words for help. Remember her voice and your answer may just come to you.

We Love you family!
Sincerely,
Mrs. Courtney LaNier
