“ We will always remember Mrs. Reese fondly. She was a kind, caring and plain spoken person. We shared some wonderful times together: going to Canada to buy fish (and then scaling it). Our trip to Sault Ste. Marie. Celebrating various holidays and her retirement party. Her military background carried over into her civilian life and made her a fierce protector of her sons. We enjoyed hearing the funny stories she'd share about her boys. She was and still is loved deeply; she will be truly missed. Our prayers are with Alan and Michael.
