“ Tina was my sister from another mother before the term was popular. A 60 year friendship has a lot of memories. From walking to grammar school, jumping rope to singing in the church choir. All the things that go with growing up. Dating, boyfriends and turning 21. Dining, concerts, Bulls games and concerts. So many years of memories. Looking back, what stands out about Tina is her smile. A smile that showed a kind and generous heart. A smile she showed even in bad times. Tina was a dedicated and supportive friend to many. One of the ways she showed her dedication to me was by visiting almost daily during a 10 week hospital stay. Tina loved hard and tight. She wanted to keep us all so close. I love her and I'll miss her. We believers know that absent from the body is present with the Lord. She's at rest now and with her parents that she missed so much.

“ So many people have contacted the family with precious memories about Tina. We've talked about fun times growing up, working together at WJPC in Chicago, her passion for fashion, her dog, Lovey, that is still with us, and especially how she was the glue that kept all of her siblings--Reginald (Reggie), Phyllis, Dennis, and Renee--actively involved in each other's lives.

Your legacy will be that, Tina, as well as your sense of humor, love of basketball and football, and life. You always amazed me by calling the plays before the referee!

I miss you so much. I love you so much. I know you're being cradled in God's arms. Rest, dear sister, rest and say hello to Mom and Dad. We'll all be together again one day. Your loving sister, Renee

Tina was more than a coworker, she was my sister. We met at JPC in 1982 and we were close until she left. There was so much joy and laughter through the years, and memories that will never fade. Although we lost contact along the way, she will always occupy a special place in my heart. My prayers for and condolences to the family. 🙏🙏🙏

My deepest sympathy to the family of my beloved friend Tina, We met at JPC and even though i moved back East, we remained close friends talking every week and sharing so many memories, Saturdays at Bakers Square, movies, sleepovers and cooking: To say that you will be missed is an understatement. To say that you were loved, is truth. You are now resting in God's arms. My continued prayers for your family.
