“ May you rest in sweet peace Mr. Tommy. I’ve known you for many decades now and you left a legacy behind which consist of my brother and sister along with my nephews and nieces-your grandchildren. I can only wish black families stop feeling as if they must hide their past transgressions or feel they will be judged by their secret actions they’ve experienced in life. The truth will always prevail & those secrets will come to the light in the very end. Trying to hide your truths will only hurt & confuse the ones you leave behind. Besides my siblings along with your other children, you now have all these legacies you’ve left behind. I can only pray one day they all will know each other & forge rightful relationships with each other. None of them asked to be a part of this thing God created called earth and life. Also, I pray you get your wings. Please be a guardian Angel to watch over “ALL” your children and their offsprings. My brother and sister has one guardian Angel in our mother. Again, may you rest in sweet peace 🙏 If you see my mama at those pearly gates, give her a kiss for me.

“Daddy..... I’m going to miss you more than you will EVER know the 1st man in my life...I’ve had you in my life for 79 years. I still reach for my phone to call you and realize you’re gone...I’m upset with the man upstairs now first Raymond and now you...This man I’m loss for words....Dad until we meet again kiss Raymond and uncle Jerry and aunt Lillie Mae.... I know I don’t understand and I’m very very unhappy but you KEPT saying sandra I’m alright and it’s left to the man upstairs and now he’s made his decision...I have to remember god makes no mistake....RIH Daddy...😭👍👍
