“ What can I say about my girl? She was one of my dearest friends on this planet. We were friends for 45 years! Our memories include high school, college, being roommates twice, pledging our beloved sorority together and being in each other's weddings. She was that friend who knew more about me than anyone else. We have so many memories together. We all have that one friend that knows things about us that no one else should ever know; she was that friend for me! I love you, sis, and I will see you again one day! One week from today you would have celebrated your 60th birthday. I know you would've done it with such grace and style and I would've been right by your side. You're in a better place now and I am happy for you. Love you, Sands!

“ I met Tracy in 1980 over 40 years ago. The Caldwell family were our neighbors. Tracy and my son, Gerald became close friends. As I watched her grow up and develop, I knew that she soul become a phenomenal woman. The amazing life that she lived will forever speak for her. Family, you have my deepest condolences. May God give you strength and confidence in His word. Weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come in the morning.

“ Dear Foster and Caldwell Family,

I am so deeply saddened to hear about the passing of Tracy. I'm so grateful for the time we shared. I'll cherish the 45 years memories forever. I'll always remember Tracy's laughter (she was silly) and her ability to make everyone feel loved and appreciated. My heart goes out to everyone whose lives were touched by this amazingly gifted person. Once again, please accept our deepest condolences.

With love and sympathy,

Byron, I remember Tracy's face lighting up every time she'd see you arrive at DayBreak in the afternoons. The love you two shared warmed my heart. Anne
