“ I lived and grew up on the same block as Tyrone which was Seminole, between Moffatt and Gratiot. I remember Tyrone always being nice, compassionate and kind. Tyrone was the epitome of a gentleman. He will be sorely missed. I got in touch with Tyrone on Facebook a couple years ago and told him I was interested in writing a book about how many of the children, such as himself grew up to become productive citizens. He was encouraging me to write the book. Ty I will write that book. Rest on. Peace Yolanda Herbert

“ It was an honor to know that you wanted me to have guardianship of your kids, in case something was to happen to you or SharRon. I will always remember that Love You

“ This is a hard one, the loss of our best friend Tyrone. A lifetime of friendship. First it was a friendship of youth, Ty and Kenny, then when they married the loves of their lives, Shar Ron and Carol, something rare happened, and they became best friends.

Our children became “cousins”, the tapestry of our lives was woven with each memory we made, and we became FAMILY.

You knew we loved you.

May you rest now, in peace,
your journey here is over.
And you toiled so very hard,
you deserve that precious gift.

May you sleep now, so sweetly,
the slumber of the loved.
Your life will be remembered,
you need worry not for that.

May you pass now, with permission,
you tried so hard to hold,
but it's not your weight to care,
for those who stay behind.

May you rest now, at last,
your time is right for crossing.
You gave your all to life
and for that you will live on.

May you sleep now, in peace,
till eternity awakes you.
May the love we still have for you,
be the pillow for your head.
