“ Shocked and saddened to just hear about Valerie's passing. She was one of the first people to greet me in Treasury at the City of Detroit. I didn't have the pleasure of working directly with her over the past few years, but I'll always have fond memories of her. Condolences to her family and friends.

“ Veronica, I am so blessed because I had the privilege to work with your mother. I called her baby sis because I was 2 inches taller and a year older. I will miss her presence, but I have her picture hanging in my cubicle. Valerie impacted so many lives. She had a huge presence that dominated any room that she entered.

This beautiful lady was such a giver, and she always gave positive and uplifting advise. She's with the Lord and I miss her presence, but I will never forget her. I have so many beautiful moments that we shared talking about our spoiled daughters. Thank you Jesus for blessing me with such a beautiful friend and sister.

Thank you Valerie for every prayer, and every memory. Veronica I promise you that I will stay close to you. I love you.

“ Val always kept a smile on her face, and when I ask her how she was doing, she would reply” Blessed and Highly Favored”. You couldn’t do nothing but smile after she said that. She would always tell me, God is God, and I wosay, all the time. Rest my dear friend, you are truly missed.

“ I've worked with Ms. Val for several years with the City of Detroit. She's one of the most kindest person I know. I remember she started a monthly birthday celebration within the Treasury Division. She brought a sheet cake and each person who were celebrating their birthday during that particular month got a balloon. She did this for one year straight!

She would always say, "Have a blessed day," and "Happy Friday" as she smiled her smile.

We at the City of Detroit lost a good one. I pray for her family during this difficult time that God give peace, understanding and direction.
