“ Vanessa you will be missed in so many ways. You were always there when needed and I will never forget the beautiful bouquet you sent me when I was hospitalized. You were a great organizer of different events at the church. I wish I had your organizational skills. Whenever anything needed to be done, we could always depend on Vanessa to get it done with grace and elegance. The decorations for the dinners, the set up for the breast cancer displays in the foyer, the name tags, Collie's Closet before Diane Evans took it over, The Daily Leaf, the Church Directory, etc. You were always on it and besides your beautiful smile, even when you were in pain, it was extraordinary how you handled it with a smile. May God bless Ed and the rest of the Hawkins family with comfort and solace. Rest now, my dear sister. Your work here on earth is done.

“ My heartfelt condolences, prayers and sympathy to Vanessa’s family, friends and those who knew and loved her. Her smile and perseverance through it all was a true sign of her love and compassion forGod, her family and church family and friends. Vanessa had a personality that was pure joy and I will miss not seeing her sitting in the pews or working behind the scenes in the church office. I know on that great day our lord and savior will say, well done VANESSA my good and faithful servant. Rest well sis . Gone in the physical but your presence will never be forgotten. ❤️

“ Sis. Hawkins would always be bossing me around, and then the next minute, she would make sure I was taken care of, especially for my classes. I believe she kept Hershey's chocolates around just for me. At least, that's how she made me feel. She was my big sister. She is at rest with the Father, and I will miss her very much.

“ This is just one thing that I remember about Vanessa. Vanessa came to me when I was about to start my Cancer process, stating that she wanted to take me to my ultrasound appointment. She did take me to my doctor's appointment and took me to breakfast. She would always check on me, and she told me about her experience with Cancer. Vanessa was a loving person. She will definitely be missed. Love you Vanessa

I referred to Vanessa as “Boss Lady”, but we know she was more than that! The beautiful spirit and smile that she showed to everyone was phenomenal! She sat and talked with me during my cancer experience and I will never forget the comfort she gave me. Well, I won't be able to make earrings for you anymore, but I will make great memories of the ones you wore. 🌀 Never forgotten and forever loved, Boss Lady! ❤️
