“ I'm going to miss Mother Gay. We had personal talks, but she was the only one talking. After she was finished telling me what to do and not do, she would say Millhouse did you hear what I said. I would always say yes ma'am. I love her wisdom and her way of dealing with problem situations. Mother I remember our last conversation on last Sunday, what you asked me to do. I know you will be watching, so I'm going to try real hard to do what you asked. I love you so much Mother Gay. Rest in glory with our Lord and Savior.

“ Family, know that God has called your loved one home to rest. Our family will forever cherish & love precious memories for almost 40 years. She was so giving, caring & patient. She was my golf pro. Be comforted in the love of Christ. ❤️
