“ My deepest and most heartfelt sympathy to the family of Mrs. Bell. I met Mother Bell at a dark time in my life. Literally. She was my hospital roommate in 2017 when I lost my vision. Despite her own medical concerns she encouraged me, took me under her wings and gave me hope and a smile. We've been friends every since. And though I never got to see her face, I saw her light and beauty with my heart. She was the angel God sent to me when I needed one and I love her dearly always. Rest In Paradise my forever friend.

“ I remember many family gatherings at Cousin Vys homie as a teenager and young adult. Always good food and good family time.
