“ My deepest empathy is felt with the White family. As next door neighbors to the Whites in their Detroit home, I grew up mostly knowing Willene, Melvin and of course, Tedra as part of our family Mansfield community. To Tedra, the first time I saw your Mother was a silhouette of her, pregnant with you walking into the screened porch to look out front, then walking back into the house, as they just moved in. I waved and said hi, and she waved hi back and smiled at me. I may have been 6 or 7, and so excited that there would be another kid on the block ... soon :)

I remember your Mothers comment to me that came just when I was a bit insecure... I was babysitting you, and your Mother came in to pick you up - she stood in the doorway to watch us playing a game, that made you laugh and laugh. "You are so good with Tedra, Thank you! " She told me. That made me feel like I was on top of the world.

Most of my fondest memories of Mansfield somehow included your Mom and your family - I remember Calhoon barking into the trashcans and being scared of the echo :D, I remember the vintage cars, the barbeques, I remember the endless days of watching you play on your porch with your Mom steadily there for you. I remember the long shifts at the hospital your Mother used to work. I remember the endless amount of love and care she bestowed to you and our community.

Heaven has indeed collected a most enduring angel. Your humanly presence will be missed.

*With love and respect,
Mary Carleton-Smith , the Carleton family*
