To my family Betty (BaeVaughn), Kim and Keisha. I send you hugs and love. I pray God's strength on each of you. I will always remember your dad when he and my brother William would get together when he came home. They would be talking and make me go in the other room 🙄🙄 I loved his dimple in his chin just like his Mom's. Remember that earth has no sorrow that heaven cannot heal! Remembering you in prayer 🙏 with ❤️

R.I.P Coach/Mr. Vaughn. My sincere condolences to the Entire Vaughn Family. Mr. Vaughn was my A.D. at Redford High School. Mr. Vaughn always looked out for his athletes, made sure that we went to class and stayed out of trouble and if you did, he would get in you John Brown Behind. And don't let him catch you in the hallway outside of the gym on the 1st and 2nd floor after the bell and you supposed to be in class!! I don't even need to talk about his sense of humor! Rest In Peace Mr. Vaughn, you will truly be missed but Never forgotten. 🙏

Prayers to the Vaughn family. Mr. Vaughn was a father figure and constant encourager to many of us who attended Redford High School. When I became an adult, I would occasionally run into him. He always gave me a good word of encouragement as I also went into education. Rest peacefully Mr. Vaughn, thanks for all you did.
