“ What sad news to hear, One of my best and funniest friends have gone to be without Father. My condolences and well wishes to the family, i knowhe will be missed. Mr. Payne, as I always called him, after having the great pleasure of meeting him at WCCCD many years ago; became my monthly check in phone buddy. He will be so greatly missed, along with his affectionist smile and great sense of humor! What a beautiful person God shared with us. My peace is with his whole family, which he constantly spoke of on every one of our calls. I will truly miss my friend, Peace Be With You. I'm going to really miss you Mr. Payne. Sandra Humphrey

“ At a lost of words . In the passing of my great friend. Are career paths crossed at Children's Hospital in "89". And again at Jop Corp. Willie was a man of great knowledge. His smile would lite up any room. He possessed Christian character. Love,kindness,patience. Very gifted and talented as a skilled worker. He was like big brother to me. I knew his wife "Gwen",she knew our friendship was important. My prayers go out to his family. Sometimes we take on more than we can bare. He didn't want to be defeated. But I think the stress was too much. So God called him home. He needed a strong angel. Willie had fulfilled his time here on earth. Sleep on my friend and take your rest.
